EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Meg Kinnear is a Canadian international disputes specialist. She is renowned for her expertise in investor-State dispute settlement (ISDS), having been the first full-time Secretary-General of ICSID (2009-2024) and head of Canada's in-house international investment and trade law group (1999-2009). Meg has been the lead counsel in numerous ISDS cases, has negotiated international investment and trade treaties, and provided strategic and legal advice on a wide variety of international investment, trade and commercial disputes. From 1984 – 1996, she litigated high profile commercial, administrative and constitutional matters in Canadian domestic courts and tribunals. Her expertise spans numerous sectors, including concessions, construction, energy, finance, infrastructure, mining, natural resources, procurement, tariffs, telecommunications and transportation. Since July 2024 Meg has acted exclusively as a dispute neutral, including as an arbitrator (Chair and party-appointee), as a panelist under the USMCA, and in mediations.

Professional Experience

07/2024 – Present • LKDR LLC (LOW & KINNEAR DISPUTE RESOLUTION) • Washington, DC & Toronto, ON Independent Dispute Neutral
Serving as a dispute neutral in international arbitration, conciliation, mediation and fact-finding, including on investor-State tribunals, international trade panels, commercial arbitration tribunals and other dispute resolution mechanisms.
